Re: Offer of Consultancy Contract
IGN Contract No 2020-Wise-01

TERMS OF REFERENCE

1) Background

Namibia is currently implementing its Food and Nutrition Security Policy and Implementation Action Plan 2019-2024. It includes several strategies to implement and strengthen mandatory fortification of staple foods and condiments. In order to design the most effective and feasible fortification programme for Namibia, UNICEF is seeking data on prevalence of micronutrient deficiencies, consumption data, including nutrient gap analysis, and data on food imports and domestic production. This data will also be useful for other strategies within the Food and Nutrition Security Policy and Implementation Action Plan

The Namibia Statistics Agency undertook the Household Income and Expenditure Survey 2015/16 between April 2015 to March 2016. It aimed to collect data on income and expenditure patterns of households and the sole source of information on income and expenditure in the country. It consisted of two questionnaires; the main questionnaire and the Daily Record Book or Diary. The main questionnaire included questions on whether or not the household had consumed key foods in the last week and where these foods came from and questions about crop production. The Daily Record Book recorded all expenditures and consumption for 7 days, organized by the UN Classification of Individual Consumption According to Purpose (COICOP) 2018. As such it is a 7-day consumption survey. UNICEF Namibia has access to the full data set from the NHIES.

The HIES data set has already been analyzed for basic production data and consumption of key foods within the last week. Government data on food imports and domestic production has been compiled. UNICEF is now seeking a consultant to undertake additional analysis of the HIES data set.

2) Services and Deliverables [Example]

The Consultant will be contracted to undertake additional analysis of the HIES data set as follows:

Major Tasks:

1. Comparison of cereal production data from MAWF/NAB and HIES to see to what extent they are similar or differ;
2. Review all available data (consumption and production) to try to estimate variations in regional consumption of the different cereals with the objective of trying to identify areas or periods with primarily communal mahangu consumption
3. Calculation of consumption/availability of fortifiable (imported and commercially produced) wheat, maize and mahangu as average g/capita/day nationally, for development of national fortification standards.
4. Using national g/capita/day calculated in task 3 above, calculate nutrient contribution from fortified foods for (i) SADC minimum regional standards and (ii) draft Namibian standards (assuming (i) and (ii) are different) and compare to (a) RNI, (b) EAR and (c) UL);
5. Using the same food consumption tables and matching scheme already prepared by FAO ADePT for 2019 macronutrient estimates, coordinate the integration of micronutrient values to enable FAO ADePT team to analyze micronutrient intake with breakdown by national, urban/rural, regions, ethno-linguistic group

Expected deliverables

- One overall report with the following information:
  - Comparison of cereal production and consumption data from MAWF/NAB and HIES, including relevant altered datasets and data-analysis files
  - Cereal production and consumption data with regional breakdown, as available;
  - Estimate of national g/c/day of fortifiable wheat, maize and mahangu consumption/availability, including data-analysis files
  - Estimates of nutrient contribution to EAR, RNI and UL based on above-mentioned national g/c/d estimates and relevant standards
- A second report with outputs of Task 5 above including relevant altered datasets and data-analysis files

The Consultant will be supported by the IGN Regional Coordinator for Southeast Asia and the Pacific and the UNICEF Nutrition Specialist for Namibia.

3) Schedule, Process and Administration

The specific assignment of the Consultant will be for a period of 11 working days between August 01 2020 and December 31 2020, unless terminated by either Party in accordance with this contract. The term and scope of this contract may be extended by mutual written agreement.

4) Remuneration

The fee for this work will be US$4,400, upon receipt and approval by the Executive Director IGN of a detailed invoice which includes the days, report of progress achieved and copies of major deliverables and output against each of the major tasks.

5) Tax

It is the Consultant's responsibility to comply with the applicable personal tax laws in his country of domicile. The IGN is in no way responsible for any personal tax-related issues.

6) Banking Information

The Consultant will provide all pertinent banking information that will facilitate electronic payment to the Consultant's account, as per Annex 1.

7) Execution

This Agreement may be executed in counterparts and such counterparts shall constitute a single instrument. Delivery of an executed counterpart of this Agreement by electronic means or electronic delivery in portable document format (".pdf") shall be equally effective as delivery of a manually delivered counterpart thereof.

The undersigned agree to all terms and conditions herein. This agreement becomes valid upon the signing of both parties.
